Your Vision Delivered

When it's time to build your dream home, Lloyd Construction is Sun Valley's top choice. As second-generation builders and valley residents, we believe building renowned custom homes requires building community first.

We make it a priority to understand your vision and build a home that reflects your personal style. To do this, we communicate clearly and frequently and cultivate strong relationships with the top trade specialists in our area.

From the initial planning stages through construction and beyond, our goal is to bring you peace of mind and make the home building process a fun and memorable experience for you and your family.

Let's get started and build something great.
